

PRESS RELEASE

November 14, 2006

CYNTHIA JOBA, LLC is happy to announce the availability of Word Wraps – new, unique, commissioned art.

Cynthia first created these delightful paintings as Christmas gifts for her family. And they were a hit! Her entire family loved them, including her nieces and nephews. They encouraged her to make them available to others.

These intimate paintings are 5"x7", perfect for framing and placing on a desk or table, reminding your loved one how much you mean to them. Each Word Wrap painting is an original work of art, and the shapes and colors are unique to each person. Customers choose the words they would like included.

CYNTHIA JOBA, LLC is dedicated to inspiring courage, creativity and clarity through the experience of art and music. The company sells limited edition prints, commissioned art and music created by Cynthia Joba. Cynthia's elegant, vibrant designs are also available for licensing to selected manufacturers.
